

Pathways to Expertise

With Michael Griffin

The Workshop:

What are the keys to successful learning in music? What should we be teaching?

The Presenter:

Michael Griffin has served music education for more than twenty years in Australia and Dubai and now travels the world inspiring school students and staffs to learn smarter. Michael has been an invited speaker at conferences in Europe, Asia, The Middle East, Africa and Australasia, and at schools around the world in 20+ countries. In April 2011, Michael was a guest speaker in Geneva for the Association Genevoise des Ecoles Privees, and in late April/May worked in Germany, Singapore, Australia and England. In August, Michael returned to Australia for another series of engagements, including adjudicator for the National Eisteddfod in Canberra, followed by an engagement with the delightful staff and students at Baobab College, Lusaka, Zambia.
