

WORKSHOP

Vocalists Working with the Accompanist

Presenter: Lynne Jordan

The Workshop:

How do you work with an accompanist? The workshop will address a number of issues including communication and ensemble-work between accompanist and vocalist, and general etiquette.

The Presenter:

Lynne attended the QCM where she studied piano and piano accompaniment. She performed on three occasions with the QSO as State finalist in the ABC Vocal/Instrumental competition.

She has considerable adjudicating experience in centres throughout Qld and Northern New South Wales. From 1975 she taught piano and piano accompaniment at the QCM. As well-known orchestral and vocal/instrumental accompanist, Lynne has performed with many local and international artists and conductors in concerts and recording work for the ABC. As part of a multi faceted professional career, she teaches privately, gives seminars on performing and travels extensively as an adjudicator, examiner and pianist/accompanist. Lynne was elected President of the Accompanists' Guild of Qld in 2008.
