Dear Musical Professionals,

On behalf of New Tang Dynasty Television (NTDTV), I would like to introduce you to the upcoming NTDTV 2009 Chinese Violin Competition, Chinese Piano Competition and Chinese Vocal Competition (Bel Canto).

As part of the 9-event NTDTV Competition Series, their mission is to revive and promote classical arts and culture that represent the best of human heritage from both China and the West. Gold Award for each of the 3 competitions is $10,000.

These competitions are opportunities for Chinese or Chinese descendent artists to showcase their skills and musicality. As a result, we hope to inspire more Chinese people to explore classical music and incorporate some of the greatest forms of artistic expression from the West into this developing renaissance of Eastern culture that we see today.

We would deeply appreciate your assistance in passing this information to your colleagues and students, who may be interested in either registering for the competitions, or saving the dates to watch the actual competitions in New York City.

The competition dates and locations are as follows:
